Opening Display of SUMMER MILLINERY.

Here you may see an unbroken display of the authoritative styles for the coming season. You want to see it. Every woman who takes the least interest in what she wears ought to see it. The exposition will instruct you about the latest styles, it will tell you where to get the best for the least outlay—it will teach economy.—No cards.

Trimmed hats, untrimmed hats, and millinery materials will have their proportionate share in the exhibition.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE DISPLAY WILL BE A SALE of millinery of every description, hats, materials, and trimmings, which we were fortunate to get, for one reason or another, much under their worth; and of these we tell you here.

THE EDNA MAY POKE, made of crinkled Japanese braid, interwoven with braid of bright satin; in natural Tuscan color only; one of the fads of the season, 1.25 value, at 69c

GAINSBOROUGH, made of black imitation hair; the new modified low crown, long front Gainsborough, the hat that's the best adapted for flower trimming of all shown this season; in black only, 1.50 value, at 89c

GIRLS' AND CHILDREN'S FLATS, made of the new chip braid, soft, pliable, in black, white, brown, navy, red and champagne; and hand-woven Tuscan flats in the natural Tuscan only; 75c value, at 25c

THE ARA FEATHER FAD—"ARA"—the term for the combination of navy and green; the latest craze in trimming for stiff hats; "just in" importations have been opened for the show, arrow, breast, and quill shapes, and will be sold at prices under present quotations, 23c, 49c, 87c, 98c

1,000 WREATHS for women's and children's hats, in all the natural colors and white; the largest assortment we have ever shown, at 45c, 69c, 75c, 98c, 1.35, 1.45, 1.69, 1.98, 2.98.
